

JUAN DEL VALLE

Flamenco Dancer

JUAN DEL VALLE began his flamenco training at the Conservatoire National in Paris. In 2000, he received a grant to travel to Sevilla where he studied with the family of the legendary El Farruco. He has also studied with masters Jose Galvan, Domingo Ortega, Antonio 'el Pipa' and Manolo Marin.

In March of 2004, Juan was selected to dance in the premier performance of Israel Galvan's Torero al Lucinogen at the Teatro Central in Sevilla, Spain. Concurrently, he performed a five-month run as a soloist at La Carboneria in Sevilla with shows televised in New York and Europe. Juan was hosted by the University of Zulia, Venezuela, and the National Ministry of Culture to participate in the international dance congress, Cuerpo Creativo. As a guest of the Chinese Government, he performed in the internationally televised Culture Festival of Beijing. Juan recently finished ten weeks of summer performances as a soloist with the company of Maria Benitez, Teatro Flamenco. Juan was invited by Ms. Benitez to join the faculty of the Institute for Spanish Arts in Santa Fe, New Mexico where he taught for five months.

"Juan Del Valle's strong shoulders and penetrating glance gave his solo alegria energy and power. Dancers...riveting..."

Craig Smith, The Santa Fe New Mexican
